

Using the HyperStudio Stack

Once you have accessed the HyperStudio stack each card has buttons to take you to the next card.

There are also buttons on the text that when clicked will read to you.

To move from the Title Page: place the mouse pointer on the LPB letters and click to go to the next card.

Each card thereafter has a button to move forward, back, or take you to the title page.

Place the mouse over the text and click to hear the story.
