

Child

Your job is to record information about the daily life of a child during the Civil War. Using researched information write a journal entry.

Describe the life of a child who went to war.

Who are you?

Daily routines and chores:

Dangers around you:

What role did you play in the war?

Your journal entries will serve as journaling for the pages of our scrapbook.

Locate and download picture for a two-page spread.

Resources:
